

RODDER'S DIGEST

VOLUME 16 NUMBER 76
February 1997

Feature Rods & Customs

- 6 Takin' it to the Streets
Years of racing experience went into this '35 Chevy cabriolet.
- 18 Heart and Soul
That, along with lots of Chevy parts and work, went into this very slick '29 Chevy sedan.
- 32 Something Different
The third time around, this '39 Chevy got radicalized.

- 42 My Way
That's how Dave Laney built his '39 Chevy coupe.
- 66 Yellow Fever
This '38 Chevy sedan is a catchy little number.
- 74 Undone and More Fun
We don't care if it's in primer; this '34 sedan delivery is way cool.

Tech & How-To

- 26 Tech Tips
Bet ya can't read just one!
- 46 Subframe Comparison
Which is right for your hot rod's front suspension?
- 71 Ask Dr. Hot Rod
The good doctor looks at a bad brake and gets tanked. Let's see George Clooney do this!

ON THE COVER

Fat fenders, slender fenders, sedans, cabriolets, even complementary paint schemes . . . this month's cover has it all, don't ya think? Hendrickson shot Ross Eichelberger's yellow '38 in Bakersfield, and Jim Lindholm's electric blue '35 Cabriolet in Spokane.

SUBSCRIBE TODAY!
1-800-875-2997

Events

- 36 The OK City Corral
Shootout at the NSRA Southwestern Nats.
- 52 Indy
Racin', Roddin', and 'Rithmetic . . . hot rodding basics with the Goodguys.
- 62 Northwest Territory
Exploring street rodding at the NSRA Northwest Nats in Spokane.

Departments

- 4 Bench Racing
11 Rodders Write
22 Rodder's News
60 Catalog Pages
72 Events
78 Book Review
79 Classified Ads
80 Advertisers Directory
82 Here's Where I Draw The Line
Lance Sorchik

Other Stuff

- 30 Fifteen Things
15 Memorable Chevrolets

Page 6

Page 18

Page 52

Page 74